

LORENZO RENNIE HARRIS P.H.D.

Rennie Harris Puremovement 1500 Market Street 12th Floor East Tower
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Rennie Harris born and raised in an African- American community in North Philadelphia. Since the age of 15, Harris has taught workshops and classes at universities nationally & internationally and is known as a powerful spokesperson for the significance of "street" origins in any dance style. Harris founded Rennie Harris Puremovement in 1992. RHPM, a hip-hop concert dance & theater company are dedicated to preserving and disseminating hip-hop culture to the masses. Harris grew up entrenched in hip hop as an African American and Latino art form, in all its forms-music, dance, language- At the turn of the century Harris was voted one of the most influential people in the last one hundred years of Philadelphia history and has been compared to twentieth-century legends, Alvin Ailey and Bob Fosse.

"Rennie Harris is the Basquiat of the US. Contemporary dance scene, Lorenzo Rennie Harris has literally embodied the history of hip-hop dance." ~London Times~

2011-Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs US Department of State chose Rennie Harris as one of four companies to represent the USA. Dance Motion USA is a cultural diplomacy program, which shares the United States' rich dance culture with international audiences, sends four American dance companies on cultural exchange tours to four world regions beginning in early 2012. In 2012 Rennie Harris Puremovement will go to Egypt, Israel/ Palestine, and Jordan, where they will engage in workshops, training, master classes, and performances. Rennie Harris Puremovement will represent the US as Cultural Ambassadors.

2011- Guggenheim-Rennie Harris the Founder/Artistic Director of Rennie Harris Puremovement has been awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship for 2010 in recognition of his work as a hip hop choreographer. Edward Hirsch, the president of the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, announced that Rennie Harris was among the 180 awarded fellowships to artists, scientists and scholars chosen from a group of some 3,000 applicants. –The Dance Journal-

2011-Creative Ambassador of Philadelphia-Rennie Harris is voted "Creative Ambassador" of Philadelphia. Greater Philadelphia Tourism Marketing Corporation's (GPTMC) newest initiative for the African American market spotlights trendsetters — musicians, visual artists, dancers, poets, designers and producers — who are in touch with what's cool, hip and hot in the city and region. These Creative Ambassadors, led in 2009 by Grammy-winning hip-hop group The Roots and in 2010 by singer/songwriter Marsha Ambrosius, use their social networks to build buzz about Philly as a travel hotspot and encourage a younger, affluent, tech-savvy crowd to visit. Rennie Harris is this years recipient.

2010 -Honorary Doctorate-Philadelphia choreographer Lorenzo "Rennie" Harris received an honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree at the Bates College 144th commencement ceremony on May 30, 2010. Founder and Artistic Director of Rennie Harris Puremovement, Harris was one of five honorary degree recipients this year. Honorands included: Dr. James McCarthy, Harvard professor of biological oceanography; Jane Pauley, veteran journalist and television anchor; Elizabeth Strout '77, Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist; and Dr. Teresa Woodruff, an obstetrics and gynecology researcher at Northwestern University. –The Dance Journal- 2008-William Shakespeare Award- Rennie Harris, Peter Martins and Chita Rivera Honored with the William Shakespeare Award for Classical Theatre: The Will Award is an annual honor given by the Shakespeare Theatre Company to a person (or persons) who has made a significant contribution to classical theatre in America.

2007-United States Artist Fellowship- Rennie Harris receives US Artist fellowship. United States Artist honor 50 of America's finest artists with individual fellowships of $50,000.00

2007-Governors Artist of the Year Award-Rennie Harris receives The Hazlett Memorial Award, which recognized Pennsylvanians who contributed their creative talents to their communities, were named the Hazlett Memorial Awards for Excellence in the Arts, after the late Theodore L. Hazlett Jr. of Pittsburgh, the first chairman of the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.
